

FORM-XIII

See Rule 20(iii) (o)

PROBATION CONTRACT

Probation -----Court Date-----Case No.-----.

That on the date indicated above, the named individual was granted probation per order of this Court for a period upto but, not to exceed-----months. Said period of probation can be extended by further formal order of the Court.

That the period of probation may be shortened and an early release granted on the basis of the fulfillment of negotiated goals as stated.

The points given for either credit or debit purpose will be entered on a regular basis and to be computed/entered only in the presence of both parties on this contract.

That both parties shall acknowledge the assessment of points by affixing their initials beside each entry and to do so in the presence of each other.

By signing below, each party agrees to the contract and its conditions as stated. Further that no action of any legal nature will be initiated unless the probationer fails to fulfill either his obligations or unless he is involved in a new offence sufficiently severe to void his probationary status.

Signing and agreed to on this the-----day of -----
-----.

Probation Officer-in-Charge.

Probationer/Family.